What will you be doing as a finance business consultant for Microsoft Business Central?

Together with the customer, you'll find the best solutions to cover their end-to-end financial and operational processes .

Most of your assignments typically fall between 4 – 12 months , and each project is as unique as the delaware team tasked to tackle it.

First, you'll set up a prototype of the customers' key processes in the Microsoft Business Central system. Then, you'll help users to get the most out of their new environment by supporting them through the different phases of the implementation, up until the go-live . Once live, you'll provide after-care support.

By implementing Microsoft Business Central, you'll allow our customers, mid-size companies , to focus on what matters – making them unique within their given market.

Microsoft Business Central implementations follow a fit-to-standard approach and have a more limited project duration. This means you'll have the opportunity to work on multiple projects , each with shorter lead times . Because variety is key!

The communicative consultant you are, you support our Sales colleagues in various presales projects

Experienced in project management or interested in a deep dive? There are plenty of opportunities to demonstrate or build these skills.

delaware has its offices in Gent, Antwerpen, Wavre, Kortrijk, Lummen, Liège and Bertrange (LUX) . You'll either work from one of these, surrounded by your colleagues, or meet with your customers onsite , who'll appreciate the close cooperation.
