For Toyota and Lexus we are constantly looking for car mechanics. We have a lot of options, both for experienced and novice technicians. We are currently looking for car mechanics, diagnostic mechanics, all-round mechanics, ... for our great teams in the various garages, dealerships and showrooms of Toyota, Lexus and BYD!

What are you going to do ?

As a mechanic, you can easily find your way between all the materials and equipment you need to carry out impeccable maintenance and repairs.

Additional tasks and responsibilities include:

You answer the technical questions of our customers

You provide practical information that is necessary for the preparation of quotations

You like to learn from your colleagues and also share your professional knowledge

You stay up to date with new developments and techniques

Who are you?

We assume that you have a technical education in car mechanics, electronics, agricultural mechanics or in a similar field

You have experience in the automotive sector or you are willing to learn it

You are a team player who is service-oriented, meticulous, and organized

After a training period, you will be able to carry out your tasks independently

You are fluent in Dutch and/or French. Knowledge of English is definitely a plus

What do we offer ?

Great challenge at a top automotive company and also the reference in hybrid vehicles

A competitive hourly wage and meal vouchers

Hospitalisation insurance and annual bonus

26 days holiday

Room to grow and follow various training courses through the Toyota Academy

A challenging job where there is room for initiative and where we are open to your ideas
