Product Owner

Hasselt, Belgium

Are you passionate about figuring out how systems relate to each other and what it takes to make them better and deliver more value to our customers in a sustainable way? If translating a product vision to actual steps gives you energy and makes you happy, we need to talk!

Mission statement

As a Product Owner you oversee translating the TrendMiner product team's vision towards actual deliverables. You understand what these features imply when it comes to a functional perspective and can translate that to a team of software engineers.

What you will do

Report to the Team Lead.

Functional elaboration of roadmap items: Define feature requirements
Define non-functional requirements
Define acceptance criteria
Functional story splitting
Feature scoping and phasing
Define relative priorities

Collaborate with UX to generate feature designs.

Closely collaborate with the QA (Quality Assurance) Engineers to define acceptance criteria and acceptance tests.

Act as point of contact for the Software Engineers to ensure correct functional development of the features.

Manage release notes for the team's deliverables.

Facilitate cross-team communication in the elaboration of tickets (bring together the right sources of knowledge)

Follow-up on product KPIs (Key Performance Indicators) and metrics
