We're looking for an in-house EU Public Affairs Manager with relevant work experience in EU policy and knowledge of the e-commerce or tech industry. As EU Public Affairs Manager, you will work with the Director of Global Public Affairs and key cross-functional stakeholders to support our policy efforts in several areas of policy at the EU level and represent Vinted towards EU policy-makers and stakeholders. We expect you to leverage your past experiences working in EU policy (e.g. institutions, government, in-house, and/or consultancy firms) and to work across functions to execute a strategy and measure its success.

For this role, we are considering candidates based in Brussels.

In this position, you'll

Monitor and assess public policy files and regulatory developments in Brussels that could impact Vinted

Drive and implement Vinted's engagement plan on several files and areas

Inform and collaborate with business stakeholders to identify and develop policy positions

Draft policy positions, answer public consultations and recommend external actions

Represent Vinted in meetings towards public decision-makers and stakeholders

Manage and leverage our participation and memberships in Trade associations

Participate on behalf of Vinted in events, conferences and panels

Collaborate closely with our business, legal, communications and sustainability teams

About you

5+ years of relevant work experience in EU policy, government, in-house, and/or consultancy firms

Fluent in English, both spoken and written, and any other European language is a plus

Strong understanding of the European Institutions and the policy debates related to tech, e-commerce and sustainability

Experience in executing cross-functional projects

Ability to translate complex policy issues into suitable explanations for either technical or non-technical audiences and to communicate impactfully in person and writing

Autonomous, rigorous, curious and motivated

Team player with can-do attitude, willingness to learn and ability to adapt quickly and in a rapidly changing environment

Work perks

Opportunity to join our share options programme

Learning budget (10% from gross yearly salary)

25 working days of holiday

Mental - and emotional - health support from Mindletic

A daily reimbursement toward your lunch expenses

Monthly team-building events

A personal budget for shopping on Vinted
